

A Break from the Normal Stresses and Pretense

It is a pleasure to meet...in an environment free of the myriad of stresses and pretenses

I really enjoyed the meeting at Guadalajara's Tuesday evening. The testimonial given was quite inspirational. I enjoyed the fellowship among the men in attendance. It is a pleasure to meet other mature, educated, Christian men, in an environment free of the myriad of stresses and pretenses normally present in just about every social situation.

Bob Beddingfield - Houston, TX